

Ellement Consulting Group continues to monitor the impacts of Coronavirus (COVID-19) and we strive to ensure the health and safety of our employees, clients and the communities we work and live in. As the situation is changing daily, we wanted to provide an update. We want to assure you that Ellement will stay operational and be available to support our valued clients and their teams.

In accordance with recommendations from Canadian Health Authorities and in respect of our collective need for social distancing, our offices will be temporarily closed to the public. This includes all unscheduled visits, plan members as well as couriers. Although there may be changes in the way we provide service, we will continue to be available to you via phone, email and online whenever it is required. We will adhere to these changes in our practice for 30 days and reevaluate as the situation evolves.

Despite any minor changes to the way we service our clients, our commitment to delivering the quality of service you are accustomed to during these challenging times remains the same.

We will share periodic updates about any changes to our operational decisions as the situation continues to unfold.

Thank you for trusting us with your business, and please reach out to your Ellement team with any questions.
